About The Chicks:

The 3 Pixel chicks are friends, wives and moms just trying to navigate the journey of life. They share a love of photography, Photoshop, digital scrapbooking, crafting, and most of all family. Join us as we struggle to get organized, raise our children, put healthy meals on the table and make a difference in our own communities. As teachers, Girl Scout leaders and school room mothers, we're always looking for something fun to do with the kids.

We'll share what we learn as we navigate through each day. We'll let you know what works and what doesn't work!

What You'll Find Here:

Welcome to 3 Pixel Chicks: your online source for digital photography tips, Photoshop Tutorials, crafts and cards you can print, digital scrapbooking supplies, gifts you can make and fun things to do with kids.

Do you have a hard time following written tutorials?

So do we! That's why we've created easy-to-follow video tutorials that take an irreverent look at digital photography, Photoshop techniques, and crafting with photos. We've presented the material in the same way that we help each other, as though you were right in front of the computer with us!

Looking for stuff to do with kids this summer?
